

You are invited to attend an information session on:

Public Procurement Act, No. 28 of 2024

Friday, 30 August 2024
The Capital Menlyn Maine, Pretoria

President Cyril Ramaphosa signed into law the Public Procurement Act, No. 28 of 2024 on 23 July 2024, marking a significant step towards fulfilling the constitutional obligations of Organs of State and other institutions identified in national legislation to conduct fair, transparent, and cost-effective procurement.

Who should attend:

- Officials from all Organs of State
- Public Office Bearers
- (externally appointed) Members of Committees of Organs of State
- Representatives from private sector businesses that aim at participating in public procurement with Organs of State, who wishes to be informed about the latest public procurement reforms and the impact that that may have on their business relationship with the State.

Benefits of attending:

- Gaining up-to-date knowledge of recent public sector procurement legislative changes and their potential ramifications
- Gaining an early awareness of possible changes in public procurement practice requirements.

Information session outline:

- Content of the Act
- Objects of the Act
- Application and Administration of the Act
- Current status of the Act (i.e. actual / anticipated implementation date, and promulgation of Regulations)
- Unpacking Chapters 2 to 7 of the Act, Section by Section – the focus will be on the WHAT, but will include a high-level/summary of the practical implications of the legislation.
- Amendment and repeal of current legislation – the focus will be on the WHAT, but will include a high-level/summary of the practical implications of the legislative changes.
